Carminati Consulting's Immuware™ is Named One of the Top 100 Finalists for the 17th Annual Chicago Innovation Awards

Chicago, IL— Out of 519 nominees, Carminati Consulting's Immuware has been selected as one of the Top 100 Finalists still in the running for the 17th annual Chicago Innovation Awards. The awards celebrate the most innovative new products and services in the Chicago region across all organization sizes, sectors and industries. 1,500 business and civic leaders will come together to honor the winners when they are announced on October 29th at Chicago's Harris Theater.

Immuware™, is a revolutionary highly customizable web-based employee health system (EHS) and occupational health system (OHS) for employees, clinicians, supervisors, administrators and management to centrally record, report and monitor immunizations, medical histories, screenings, medical surveillance testing, injuries, exposures, illnesses and certifications.

"Chicago continues to rise as a global hub of innovation due to the breadth of organizations in our region that introduce a stream of new products and services into the market each year," said Tom Kuczarski, co-founder with Chicago journalist Dan Miller of the awards. "This year's nominees generated a combined total of $3.44 billion in revenues through their new products and services alone."

As one of the Top 100 Finalists, Carminati Consulting will receive a $2,500 scholarship to attend The Practical Innovator, a day-long executive education course on September 26th led by top faculty who teach innovation at Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management.

Each of the Top 100 Finalists is also in the running for the annual "People's Choice Award," selected through online balloting at <https://chicagoinnovation.com/peoples-choice-award-voting/>

Out of the Top 100 Finalists, the judges will select 10 winners of the Chicago Innovation Awards, as well as 10 winners of the Up-and-Comer Awards representing innovation in the start-up community, the Social Innovator Award, the Collaboration Award, and 3 Neighborhood Award winners, which will showcase innovation occurring in Chicago's diverse neighborhoods. The winners will be invited to ring the NASDAQ Bell in New York City, invited to separate meetings with Mayor Rahm Emanuel, Governor Bruce Rauner and Cook Count President Toni Preckwinkle, and receive widespread media recognition.
